Fitz Mac's "political portrait" of Mr. [illegible] Cooper will [illegible] just now.

There should be no more efforts to hedge up the McKinley platform. Harrison disposed of the free whiskey question by properly saying it was too remote for consideration.

The greatest effort ever made to carry the state will be made by the democrats this year. Big forthwith the convention gave us a good ticket which every republican should lay dily support.

Patterson can act more intelligently than Cooper in considering applications from criminals at Canon City for pardons. The democratic papers are not paying sufficient prominence to this fact.

The democratic convention followed the republican lead in demanding that the state should not pay interest on her warrants while over a million dollars is left in the treasury for the state treasurer and the bankers to speculate on. The democrats always strike a true note when they follow republican lead.

The Herald Democrat says Colorado Springs cannot expect to be considered a "baseball city" until it shall learn how to play base ball." We may also remark that Leadville cannot expect to be considered a city of culture until it shall have a base ball team which can defeat even the cattle [illegible]
